These beliefs not only anchor Adventists spiritually but also shape their community life and mission. This study guide will walk you through these doctrines, offering explanations and insights that clarify their significance.

What Are the SDA 28 Fundamental Beliefs?

The SDA 28 fundamental beliefs are a set of official statements that summarize the key teachings of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Adopted by the General Conference in 1980 and periodically reviewed since, these beliefs reflect the church's commitment to biblical authority and a Christ-centered faith. They cover a broad range of theological topics from the nature of God to the Christian's role in society. These fundamental beliefs are grouped into several categories: - Doctrine of God - Doctrine of Humanity - Salvation and Atonement - The Church and Its Mission - Christian Life and Conduct - Last Day Events This structure helps believers understand how each belief relates to the overall Christian experience as understood by Adventists.

Breaking Down the Key Beliefs

1. The Godhead

At the heart of SDA theology is the belief in one God who exists as a Trinity: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. This belief emphasizes the unity and diversity within God's nature. Understanding the Godhead is crucial because it shapes the Adventist view of creation, redemption, and daily relationship with God.

2. Creation

Adventists hold a literal belief in the six-day creation week as recorded in Genesis. This belief underscores God's intentional design and care for the universe. The study guide typically highlights the importance of creation in affirming God's power and the sacredness of life, as well as the Sabbath, which commemorates

God's rest on the seventh day.

3. Salvation Through Christ

Central to the SDA 28 fundamental beliefs is the doctrine of salvation by grace through faith in Jesus Christ. The study guide explores how Christ's life, death, and resurrection provide the means for humanity's redemption. It also emphasizes the ongoing role of the Holy Spirit in sanctifying believers.

4. The Sanctuary and Investigative Judgment

A unique Adventist belief is the sanctuary doctrine, which teaches that Christ ministers in the heavenly sanctuary, performing an investigative judgment before His second coming. This belief can be complex, but the study guide breaks it down into understandable parts, explaining its biblical basis and how it encourages living a holy life.

5. The Second Coming and End Times

The anticipation of Jesus' imminent return is a cornerstone of Adventist hope. The 28 fundamental beliefs include detailed teachings on the signs of the end times, the resurrection of the dead, and the final judgment. This section often inspires believers to live with purpose and urgency.

Color-coded highlights add another layer of organization. Different colors can represent themes, importance levels, or types of information. For example, one color may be used for definitions, another for examples, and another for questions. This visual system improves clarity and speeds up review sessions.
