ancestral lands. - Segregation in schools, public facilities, and employment. - Voter suppression and political disenfranchisement. - Cultural repression, including bans on speaking Spanish and practicing traditions. These systemic issues created a collective consciousness among Mexican Americans that their rights and identity needed to be actively defended and reclaimed.

The Rise of Political Consciousness

The 20th century saw a gradual awakening among Mexican Americans, especially during the 1940s and 1950s, with the emergence of organizations such as the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) and the Mexican American Political Association (MAPA).
