Think About Examples

When possible, recall examples of the literary term in real texts or create your own. For instance, if the question asks about “personification,” think of a phrase like “the wind whispered through the trees” to confirm your understanding.

Beware of Similar Terms

Some literary terms are closely related, such as metaphor and simile. Pay attention to the subtle differences: similes use “like” or “as,” whereas metaphors do not.

3. Contextual Usage: Where possible, incorporate excerpts or examples to test the application of terms in real literary contexts rather than isolated definitions.
