What Is We Are Water Protectors?

We Are Water Protectors is a children's picture book that tells the story of a young Indigenous girl who leads her community in protecting water from pollution and environmental harm. The book's narrative is inspired by real-life events, especially the grassroots movements against pipeline projects that threaten natural water sources. While the story is fictional, it draws from the urgent message Indigenous activists have been sharing: water is sacred, and it must be defended.

Carole Lindstrom, an enrolled member of the Turtle Mountain Band of Ojibwe, wrote the book with a deep connection to Indigenous culture and environmental stewardship. She wanted to create a story that could educate children about the significance of water and Indigenous rights while empowering young readers to take action. The illustrations, created by Michaela Goade, an Indigenous artist of Tlingit and Haida descent, bring the story to life with vibrant, evocative watercolor images. Goade's artwork earned her the prestigious Caldecott Medal in 2021, recognizing the book's outstanding visual storytelling.
