What Are Hidden Maradmin Messages?

Definition and Purpose

Maradmin, short for Marine Administrative Messages, are official communications issued by the Marine Corps to disseminate policy updates, directives, and other important information. While many maradmins are publicly accessible or announced through official channels, some contain sensitive or internal information—these are often referred to as “hidden maradmin messages.” They are typically circulated within specific units or command levels and may not be immediately visible to all Marines. The purpose of these hidden messages is to handle sensitive topics such as personnel assignments, disciplinary actions, security clearances, or operational strategies that require discretion. They serve to ensure that crucial information is communicated securely and selectively to relevant parties.

How Are They Hidden?

Hidden maradmin messages are usually circulated through secure channels such as internal email systems, command briefings, or classified communication platforms. They are not published on public websites or open forums, which makes awareness of their existence and content limited for the average Marine.
