Record Yourself

Listening back to your practice sessions can reveal areas needing improvement that you might miss while playing. It’s a powerful tool for self-assessment, particularly for tone quality and articulation.

Combine with Other Resources

Its exercises are often used to prepare students for solo performances, orchestral auditions, and competitive band placements. While Arban's method is often heralded for its exhaustive technical exercises primarily for trumpet players (though transcribed for other brass), Rubank's method caters specifically to the slide technique and tonal qualities unique to trombone and baritone.
